Tagline: Uplifting The World!

Synopsis: THE GOOD NEWS TV SHOW is a new 30 minute news broadcast that highlights positive happenings and events in a fun and exciting way. Our mix of celebrity anchors, a rapping weather man, social influencers, and other special guests, offer an uplifting look at current events, sports, business, health, people, entertainment, technology and much more.
Our mission is to spread the goodness of the many beautiful things that are happening on this Earth each and every day. We believe people are sick and tired of being bombarded with negativity! People are yearning for real stories about the heroes, the kindness, the love and humanity, that brings people together. Stories that touch the fabric of our being and make us smile. Through our 30 minute TV broadcast, billions will smile again, and the world will realize just how much love and goodness exists. Our mix of celebrity anchors, a rapping weather man, social influencers, and other special guests, offer an uplifting look at current events, sports, business, health, people, entertainment, technology and much more. Join us for the Good News Airing on Roku TV, Amazon Prime, and Apple TV December 2019!
NO MORE BAD NEWS!

Every day the news is filled with stories about crime, pollution, inequality, drug abuse, war, scandal, and oppression. The News warns us of coming anachories, plagues, epidemics, collapses, and so many “crises” that it has created a state of fear, depression and anxiety across the World. We realize people die, and horrible things do happen, but why should we focus on evil when so much Good is happening everyday that goes unnoticed? Shouldn’t someone be broadcasting the Good News, so that it can inspire and spread love, generosity and hope in order to UPLift our World?

FOR THE FIRST TIME EVER IN THE HISTORY OF TV NEWS
Does anyone have any good news? Are you pregnant, are you going to be a grandparent, are you newly engaged, are you starting a new business, etc.? Sometimes good news brings joy, even if for a few moments. I don’t care where you live or what you do.. spread some joy. I think all of us globally could benefit from a smile from others’ joy. :)

Thank you for posting. Wherever you look, all you are being shown is the negative, sensationalized and at times untrue stories, we all really need to hear the positive news stories. Optimism in the face of adversity will help us through.
